

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Two Sunday's ago, my comments at Mass, started a rumor that "I am leaving." I should know better by now that anything can be misunderstood, especially when assumptions are made that are taken out of context. The context was trying to explain the Diocesan Plan with seven priorities in relation to a Parish Plan that we are asked to formulate. So my words were: "It is time to begin to think of the next pastor and the Form of Administration."

Also, to date, three people have volunteered to be on the Pastoral Council. I may try again to organize a Pastoral Council during lent. Canon Law (#536) explains Law that a Pastoral (not parish) Council is to be established if the bishop judges it to be opportune. However, Canon (#537) states: "Each parish is to have a finance council which is regulated by universal law."

Traditionally, a pastor is obligated to live in a parish house, close to the church; and be responsible for a defined territory - Hatteras and Ocracoke Islands. When circumstances require it, several parishes can be entrusted to a team of several priests. Or a parish can be entrusted to a deacon or to a community of persons, with a priest to supervise their pastoral care. All this should lead to a long term discussion by parishioners in communication with the Bishop.

Priority #7 of the Diocesan Plan, Goal D: The Diocese will actively recruit priests from other areas to serve in underserved places in the Diocese.

So, coming full circle, "Am I leaving? Considering the probabilities, that will happen sometime within the next 6 years. My Mother lived to 87, but Father to 71; my lawyer brother is 91; physician brother died at 71. Is it correct logic to say that lawyers live longer than doctors? Three of my 5 sisters died in their 70's - the three who smoked, while the men did not. Molly is boxer #5, preceded by Mitsy, Mizz, Big Ms. and Spike - both 84 in dog years. There is one certain answer, I'm leaving when God cuts the thread.

Fr. Bob and Molly B.

We Take Request ~ Book of Prayer Intentions

Our church family can now make prayer requests by way of our Book of Prayer Intentions, which is provided specifically for that purpose. "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving make your requests known to God." -Philippians 4:6

Marriage – Love and Life In The Divine Plan: From Marriage Flows Children

Marriage is not merely a private institution, however. It is the foundation for the family, where children learn the values and virtues that will make good Christians as well as good citizens. The importance of marriage for children and for the upbringing of the next generation highlights the importance of marriage for all society. Look what the United States Catholic Bishops are saying about marriage <http://www.usccb.org/laity/loveandlife/>

How much time will you spend with your spouse today? Some studies say that the average couple spends only 20 minutes a day together. Do you need to increase face time? On your wedding day you promised to love each other for better or for worse. What is a "for better" that your spouse has made in your life? Share it before you go to bed tonight. For more tips and resources to strengthen your marriage, visit www.foryourmarriage.org

Marriage – Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Two become one Marriage, this clinging together of husband and wife as one flesh, is based on the fact that man and woman are both different and the same. They are different as male and female, but the same as human persons who are uniquely suited to be partners or helpmates for each other. The difference between man and woman, however, cannot be restricted to their bodies, as if the body could be separated from the rest of the human person. The human person is a union of body and soul as a single being. Man and woman are two different ways of being a human person. Look what the United States Catholic Bishops are saying about marriage <http://www.usccb.org/laity/loveandlife/>
