V+JMarch 10, 2024*Salesian Reflection*Fourth Sunday of Lent

Here we are at the midpoint of our Lenten journey. During the past three weeks, we have been listening to the call of the prophets and Jesus himself:

“Repent and believe the Good News.”

Change your way of living.

Today, in the midst of these voices for change, we hear the Good News: “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world” but to save it.

We heard St. Paul expand on John’s words: “God, who is rich in mercy, because of the great love he had for us, even when we were dead in sin, brought us to life in Christ – by grace you have been saved.”

The wonder of God’s loving mercy shown to us in Jesus: the immeasurable riches of His grace, His kindness to us in Jesus. Our salvation, our new life, is pure grace, freely given by the God who loves us. We have done nothing to deserve it; we can do nothing to merit it. It’s ours because God loves us. When we have the humble faith to accept this gracious gift of our God, then we can be made new, for we share in the life and love of God.

When we listen to the Good News and trust in God’s faithful word to us, then we are open to confessing our sins and receiving the mercy of God. When we understand what God is doing in us, we will find ourselves being led to gratefulness. And our gratefulness will show itself in the way we live with one another. We then choose to become part of the light that Jesus is bringing into our world. The good we do for one another is done in response to God’s graciousness. It is good to be reminded that God has loved us so much. May today’s reminder be a source of encouragement as we continue our good works on our journey to our Father’s house.

V+J10 Marzo de 2024*Salesianos Dominicales*Cuarto Domingo de la Cuaresma

La Cuaresma es un tiempo para celebrar la misericordia, la generosidad y la bondad de Dios. Ciertamente escuchamos un eco de la carta de Pablo a los Efesios en las observaciones hechas por San Francisco de Sales en su Tratado del Amor de Dios (II, 5) cuando escribe: “Quién puede ahora dudar de los abundantes medios que tenemos a nuestra disposición para alcanzar la salvación gracias a nuestro Salvador, en cuya imagen hemos sido hechos y por cuyos mérito hemos sido salvados?”

Francisco añade: “Verdaderamente, el pecado de Adán estuvo lejos de abrumar la generosidad de Dios, por el contrario, el pecado de Adán intensificó la generosidad de Dios y la sacó a relucir en todo su esplendor!” La Cuaresma nos llama a proclamar esta verdad: Así como Dios nos ama al crearnos, nos ama aun más al redimirnos! Como San Francisco de Sales proclamo, “El estado de redención es cien veces mejor que el estado de inocencia”. La Cuaresma nos llama a proclamar la verdad de que ante la generosidad de Dios todos somos muy frecuentemente mezquinos, intransigentes, poco caritativos. Esto es demostrado de forma muy poderosa cuando pecamos.

Irónicamente, es sólo cuando aceptamos la generosidad de Dios que somos realmente capaces de arrepentirnos de nuestros afectos, actitudes y actos pecaminosos. La Cuaresma nos llama a “llevar una vida de buenas obras. El arrepentimiento no es solamente abstenernos del pecado; el arrepentimiento significa también acoger la virtud, hacer lo que Dios nos manda y nos aconseja hacer “diligentemente, frecuentemente y prontamente con entusiasmo y alegría”. En lo que queda de esta temporada dediquémonos a la gratitud. Den testimonio de la gentileza de Dios y desu arrepentimiento siendo misericordiosos, generosos y gentiles en sus relaciones con los demás. Si lo hacen se convertirán mas convincentemente, en “obras de Dios, creadas en Cristo, para llevar una vida de buenas obras” que Dios preparo para ustedes – si, ustedes- desde la creación del mundo!

Bring soup to share, and the whole family. Soup Suppers, Wednesdays through March 20, are held immediately following the 5:30pm Stations of the Cross, about 6:00pm.

Special thanks to our March 6 & March 13 hostesses, Donna Groom and Laurie Campbell.

And remember the flowers for the Altar of Repose on Holy Thursday, the Flower arrangement for Easter Sunday, the carnations for Mother's Day and the Crown for Mary will all be supplied by the Martha & Mary Ministry.

The next meeting is on Thursday, April 18, 2024 in the Hall. Bring a nibble to share. M&M will provide drinks and paper products. Fellowship begins at 5:15pm and the meeting (about an hour) at 5:30pm. We will discuss the Book Club beginning in May and other planned and not-yet-planned events. Bring a fellow parishioner to join the Fellowship. We need more hands to keep what we have going and brains to fuel more parish-wide happenings!

areas of evangelization, discipleship, worship, liturgy, sacramental preparation, and programs that pour forth God's grace, love, and mercy. La Campaña Anual del Obispo 2024 financia muchos ministerios que nos permiten proclamar el Evangelio y llegar incluso a las zonas más remotas del este de Carolina del Norte. Su apoyo juega un papel fundamental en la financiación de los ministerios en las áreas de evangelización, discipulado, culto, liturgia, preparación sacramental, y una serie de programas que derraman la gracia, el amor y la misericordia de Dios.

Our goal for 2024 is $10,409.00.

You have contributed $6,741.74! Please help us reach our goal! WAY OF THE CROSS/VIA CRUCIS

Each Wednesday at 5:30pm during Lent through March 20, 2024, we walk with Jesus with bilingual Stations of the Cross. All Faith Formation Students and their Parents should attend. Todos los estudiantes de Formación de Fe y sus padres deben asistir.

WHAT IS THE PASTORAL/PARISH COUNCIL?

The Pastoral Council is a planning council, not a coordinating council. It is where cooperative planning occurs. The consultation of the pastoral council is essential in the decision-making process of the parish, but the council is not the decision maker. The pastor is the head of the pastoral council. He may, but does not have to, appoint members to ensure balance and to see that all segments of the parish are represented (e.g., Saturday evening Mass group and Sunday morning Mass group).

Who should be a member of the pastoral council?

Council members must meet the following criteria:

- Be a Roman Catholic in good standing with the Church;
- Be a registered and supporting member of the parish;
- Be a participant in parish life and worship;
- Be committed to prayer, study, listening and dialogue;
- Be committed to giving the time needed for participation; and
- Be aware of and comply with Parish Conflict of Interest Policy.
- In addition, he or she should possess the following gifts necessary for pastoral leadership:
- A desire for spiritual growth in oneself and in the parish;
- Eagerness to participate in parish decisions about its direction;
- Willingness to listen, speak openly and honestly, and to work toward consensus;
- The ability to inspire others and to delegate; a commitment to cooperation, flexibility and openness toward people and ideas.

LAETARE SUNDAY

On the fourth Sunday of Lent, the previously dreary church sanctuary may be decorated with flowers, and more upbeat music may be played. The name Laetare is taken from the Introit at Mass, Laetare Jerusalem, which means “Rejoice, O Jerusalem.” The priest may wear rose-colored vestments instead of the purple penitential ones. Why the change? When we see the color rose at Mass we are beckoned to rejoice; the season of penance is coming to a close and the celebration of Christ’s Resurrection draws near! In previous centuries, as a symbol of this joy, the pope would carry a golden rose in his right hand when leaving Mass. Later, the golden rose consisted of a cluster of roses made of pure gold that the popes would bless and then give to cities, churches, or shrines. In the end, if you see your priest wearing “pink,” remember the call to live joyfully. We are not meant to live our lives in a perpetual Lent, but to experience the great joy of Easter and to spread that joy to all those we meet.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

When circumstances prevent us from attending Mass and receiving Holy Communion, we are invited to receive Communion Spiritually:

*“My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I long for You in my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
As though You have already come,
I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.”*

ORACIÓN DE COMUNIÓN ESPIRITUAL

Existen diferentes motivos por los que no podemos recibir la Eucaristía en la Santa Misa. En estos casos, la Iglesia nos anima a hacer un acto de “comunión espiritual”, donde nos unimos a Dios a través de la oración.

“Creo, Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el cielo y en el Santísimo Sacramento del Altar.

Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma, pero no pudiendo hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente, ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.

Y como si ya te hubiese recibido,

Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Tí.

Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de Tí. Amén.”
