V+JMarch 3, 2024*Salesian Reflection*Third Sunday of Lent

Today's Gospel speaks to the catechumens who are preparing for baptism. Jesus, reaching out to a woman rejected by society, offers her "a spring of water welling up to eternal life." St. Francis de Sales speaks often of how Jesus calls us out of slavery to sin into a life of holiness that leads to eternal happiness:

There are many who aspire to holiness, but few attain it because they do not walk as they ought—ardently, yet tranquilly; carefully, but confidently.

That is to say, we must rely more on the Divine Goodness and Providence than on ourselves and our good works. We must be very faithful, but without anxiety or eagerness.

Yet God wants us to do all that lies in our power. That is, God wants us to use the ordinary means to attain holiness. We must use the means that are given to us according to our vocation, and then remain in peace concerning all the rest. If these should fail, God will never fail to assist us as long as we are open to the divine will. God, under whose guidance we have embarked, will always be attentive to provide us with whatever is necessary. Therefore, when human aid fails us, God's special providence takes over and takes care of us. God would sooner work miracles than leave without assistance, either spiritual or temporal, those who trust entirely in Divine Providence.

We say that we do not know whether the will to please God that we now have will remain with us during our whole life. Alas! It is true, for there is nothing so weak and changeable as we are.

But nevertheless, let us not be troubled. Let us rather frequently lay this good will before Our Lord. Let us place it in His hands and He will renew it as often as is necessary so that we may have enough for our whole mortal life. After this mortal life there will be no cause for fear, for we shall be in a safe place.

(L. Fiorelli, ed., Lenten Sermons of St. Francis de Sales.)

V+J3 Marzo de 2024*Salesianos Dominicales*Tercer Domingo de la Cuaresma

El Evangelio de hoy nos relata el pasaje de los catecúmenos en el momento en que se preparan para el bautismo. Escuchamos entonces que Jesús se acerca a una mujer que ha sido rechazada por la sociedad, y le ofrece "una fuente de agua que brota para la vida eterna". San Francisco de Sales nos ha hablado en varias ocasiones sobre cómo Jesús nos ha llamado a liberarnos de la esclavitud del pecado, y a comprometernos a llevar una vida de santidad que nos conduzca a la felicidad eterna:

Muchas personas aspiran a alcanzar la santidad pero muy pocas logran obtenerla porque no caminan como debieran – fervientemente, y la vez llenos de serenidad; cuidadosamente, pero seguros de sí mismos. Esto quiere decir que debemos depender más de la Divina Bondad y Providencia que de nosotros mismos y de nuestras buenas obras. Debemos ser completamente fieles, pero no dejarnos llevar por la ansiedad ni la impaciencia. Esto quiere decir que Dios quiere que utilicemos medios comunes y corrientes para alcanzar la santidad. Debemos hacer uso de los dones que nos han sido otorgados de acuerdo a nuestra vocación, y mantenernos en paz en lo referente a todo lo demás. Si esto llegase a fallar, podemos estar seguros de que Dios jamás va a dejarnos desamparados mientras nosotros estemos dispuestos a cumplir con la Voluntad Divina. Por lo tanto, cuando la ayuda humana nos falle, la providencia especial de Dios asumirá el mando y se encargará de nosotros. Dios prefiere obrar milagros antes que dejar desamparados, ya sea espiritual o temporalmente, a todos aquellos que confían totalmente en la Providencia Divina. A veces decimos que no estamos seguros de que la voluntad de complacer a Dios que hoy sentimos prevalecerá en nosotros a lo largo de nuestra vida. La pregunta es válida, ya que no hay nada más débil y propenso al cambio que nosotros. Aun así, no nos preocupemos. Mejor demostrémosle a Nuestro Señor nuestra buena voluntad continuamente. Dejémosla en Sus manos; EL la renovará tantas veces como sea necesario para que perdure en nosotros durante el resto de nuestra vida mortal. Una vez terminada esta vida mortal no habrá razón para sentir temor, ya que entonces estaremos en un lugar seguro.

(L. Fiorelli, ed., Sermones para la Cuaresma de San Francisco de Sales.)

MARTHA & MARY

M&M's first Lenten Soup Supper was a huge success, paving the way for those that follow it. There were 55 parishioners and friends in attendance!

Join the fun and fellowship! Bring soup to share, and the whole family.

Soup Suppers, Wednesdays until March 20, are held immediately following the 5:30pm Stations of the Cross, about 6:00pm.

Special thanks to our February 21 hostesses, Gibbs Bricker and Megan Vayette, and to our February 28 hostesses, Beth Fellenstein and Claudia Hennessey. The next M&M meeting is on Thursday, April 18, 2024 in the Hall. Bring a nibble to share. M&M will provide drinks and paper products. Fellowship begins at 5:15pm and the meeting (about an hour) at 5:30pm. We will discuss the Book Club beginning in May and other planned and not yet planned events. Bring a fellow parishioner to join the Fellowship. We need more hands to keep what we have going and brains to fuel more parish-wide happenings!

The Next Coffee Sunday is April 21, 2024 after the 9:00am Mass. Bring a breakfast casserole, bacon, sausage, fresh fruits or baked goods. M&M supplies coffee, tea, juice and water.

HUMILITY ♦ GENTLENESS ♦ PATIENCE

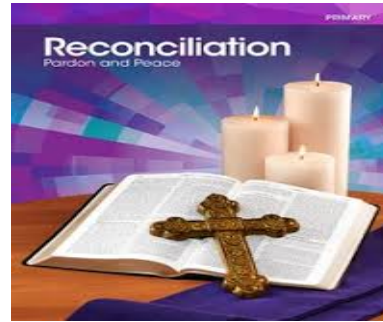

SACRED and TRAUMATIC

I was wisely told by my preaching professor, “Do not Easter my Lent!” In other words, do not rush to the Resurrection, empty tomb, or eternal life. Instead, stay at the foot of the cross for a while. I’ve always liked that advice especially when I juxtaposed it next to our Salesian emphasis on living the present moment. Convinced that our God was a God of the present, St. Francis de Sales cultivated a life directed towards God in the present moment. I love the practice of the present moment especially when I find myself doing the things I like.

But, what about at the foot of the cross? How do I live in the present moment there? My middle brother, John, died very suddenly of a pulmonary embolism in 2020. I received a call from my mom to rush over to John’s house. When I arrived at his house, I was informed by the paramedics that John was already dead. The person in charge asked if I wanted to see the body. I went into the house, up the stairs to his bedroom, and prayed over John. I’ve prayed at the moment of death before, and I can say it’s a sacred moment. You are in the place where... and so close to the moment when... eternity touches time and embraces us. It was a sacred moment.

At the same time, this was my brother, and it was a traumatic moment. For weeks I tried to reconcile in my mind, “Was this a sacred moment or a traumatic moment?” That crisis lasted until another Oblate, Fr. Ken McKenna, listened to me and said, “Joe, it’s both - sacred and traumatic.” It’s true. Moments can be both sacred and traumatic. I use those same words as we sit at the foot of the cross in our Lenten season. Living in the present moment even at the foot of the cross shows us a God who does not run away from us, and who leans over and whispers, “I will take hold of you, and not let go.” This moment, the next, and for all time. Fr. Joe Newman, OSFS Provincial, Toledo-Detroit Province

Vijay, Pastor of Holy Trinity in Williamston, and Fr. Rob Schmid, Pastor of St. Charles Borromeo in Ahoskie* will be available during the service for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

WHAT IS THE PASTORAL/PARISH COUNCIL?

The pastoral council is a planning council, not a coordinating council. It is where cooperative planning occurs. The consultation of the pastoral council is essential in the decision-making process of the parish, but the council is not the decision maker. The pastor is the head of the pastoral council. He may, but does not have to, appoint members to ensure balance and to see that all segments of the parish are represented (e.g., Saturday evening Mass group and Sunday morning Mass group).

Who should be a member of the pastoral council?

Council members must meet the following criteria:

- Be a Roman Catholic in good standing with the Church;
- Be a registered and supporting member of the parish;
- Be a participant in parish life and worship;
- Be committed to prayer, study, listening and dialogue;
- Be committed to giving the time needed for participation; and
- Be aware of and comply with Parish Conflict of Interest Policy.
- In addition, he or she should possess the following gifts necessary for pastoral leadership:
- A desire for spiritual growth in oneself and in the parish;
- Eagerness to participate in parish decisions about its direction;
- Willingness to listen, speak openly and honestly, and to work toward consensus;
- The ability to inspire others and to delegate; a commitment to cooperation, flexibility and openness toward people and ideas.
